

Template for making a netsuke-style hare.

This template shows the footprint of the body only.

Use the inner shape as a guide for making your aluminium form and then build on it with paperclay as instructed in the video until you have the same approximate size and shape.